FROM THE PRESIDENT'S DESK

Dr. P. K. Shah
President

Dear FOGSIANs and friends,

It gives me pride, pleasure and a sense of responsibility in equal parts to write this message as the President of the Federation of Obstetric and Gynaecological Societies of India for the Annual Report of 2011–12. FOGSI is growing phenomenally with its activities spread across the country. Among its various functions the most important ones are to support the scientific endeavours and general wellbeing of its 27,000 plus members and ensure a more therapeutic environment for the practitioner and the woman.

FOGSI has a deep sense of social responsibility as is clearly set out in its Vision and Mission statements. Perhaps the most important social issues that we face, as women's healthcare providers are sex selective foeticide and maternal mortality. To this effect, a number of societies have formed DOSST (Doctors Opposing Sex Selective Termination) Cells. Even though the massive Government machinery is at work at all levels to check these practices, FOGSI members have faced some serious difficulties during these operations. FOGSI has done its best to represent the difficulties and ease these burdens. All the members of FOGSI doing ultrasonography are requested to follow the PCPNDT Act religiously.

Maternal mortality is a burning issue, and in order to meet the MDG goals by 2015, we have taken up this issue seriously with the annual theme, 'Let the Life of Every Mother and Neonate Count'. Maternal Mortality Reduction Workshops are also being held to involve FOGSI members and train Government officials. Also notable is the work done by special FOGSI projects namely, the EmOC FOGSI Certification course, FOGSI SIDA project, FOGSI – India FIGO Gates and MNH Initiative, and the National Initiative for Maternal Health.

FOGSI has introduced the Social Security Scheme to enable members to care for themselves and their family members. It has enormous benefits and we can scale these up as membership increases. I urge each and every FOGSI member to enrol for this scheme.

Some of the new developments at FOGSI include:

- The Journal of Obstetrics and Gynaecology of India that will now be indexed on Pubmed Central.
- Electronic archiving of journal issues dating back to 60 years.
- Making the All India Congress of Obstetrics and Gynaecology (AICOG) more streamlined in terms of conduct, venue selection and also employing an event manager for the same.
- Seeking a larger premise for FOGSI and ICOG so that we have our own college premises.
- Initiation of web-enabled services (webcast) to be in touch with all the Member bodies of FOGSI. To this effect it will be great if all members could update their complete contact details including addresses with pin codes, mobile and landline numbers, email addresses, etc.

FOGSI has been guided on various academic and social activity fronts under the able leadership of the immediate past president, Dr. P. C. Mahapatra till January 2012 and then myself.

The FOGSI Annual Report is not only a mere documentation of activities, accounts and programs, but it also represents the spirit and work of its office bearers, chairpersons and members from across the country. I hope that the Annual Report will do its best to capture this spirit and bring to you highlights of the work that has been done.

With best regards and wishes,

Dr. P. K. Shah

Dear FOGSIANS,

The old adage a place for everything and everything in its place aptly describes the essence of an efficient organization. Of course the concrete interpretation of a neat and effective allocation of physical space is only one aspect of any efficient organization. The larger implications are in terms of having the right resources of material, personnel and time to ensure that our ever-growing Federation of Obstetric and Gynaecological Societies of India is a smooth functioning, constantly growing, modern corporate entity.

With the advent of year 2012, there has been a complete change of guard of the office-bearers including those at the FOGSI office, with a new addition the Joint Treasurer.

Historically FOGSI has evolved as a uniquely efficient organizational structure with the annually elected President and Vice Presidents offering governance leadership and the Secretary General, Deputy Secretary General and Treasurers serving longer tenures offering an administrative consistency. Together they manage a national organization with 218 member bodies and over specialist 27,000 members.

FOGSI is fortunate to have a dedicated office staff supervised by the Office Superintendent. The staff is assigned specific duties related to day-to-day activities, accounts and banking, ICOG activities, Journal activities, work related to special schemes and FOGSI programmes.

Though a number of measures are in place to ensure that the organization runs professionally, many areas need constant upgrades and guidelines to improve. An organization has also to continuously strive to improve efficiency, quality of work output and ease of achieving results consistently. Towards this end, FOGSI has embarked on an exercise to achieve an ISO accreditation for its office with the aim of setting standards in terms of functioning and maintain quality since the role of good governance cannot be overemphasized.

On behalf of the Managing Committee, it gives us great pleasure to present this Annual Report of 2011-12, specially formatted to be part of FOGSI archives. The office bearers and the Managing Committee of FOGSI had a great time bringing you this FOGSI year. We thank you for belonging to FOGSI and request your continued involvement and support.

REPORT OF THE YEAR'S ACTIVITIES FROM THE IMMEDIATE PAST PRESIDENT, DR P. C. MAHAPATRA.

Begin by doing what is necessary, then by what is possible.
And suddenly you will see yourself doing the impossible.

The theme of 2011 was 'FOGSI's Will and Your Skill'.

The activities of 2011 were directed towards making it a memorable year for skill development for the members. This has been largely due to the untiring efforts of my Chairpersons aided by my Vice-Presidents in propagating the Will & Skill Concept and conducting CMEs and workshops in almost all societies of FOGSI under the FOGSI - Pharma Educational Initiative. We completed 1500 such programs during our tenure.

I am now immensely satisfied because my Vision and Mission could be transformed into action. I feel that there are innumerable operators in this country, but very few surgeons, and our commitment towards the transformation of operators into surgeons has been fulfilled.

One of the main decisions made on an administrative and organizational level was the concept of zonal Vice-Presidents. They are the insignia of FOGSI-India. This landmark decision was made at the Managing Committee Meeting, held in April at Gurgaon. It illustrates the concept that 'the choice is yours, while the responsibility is ours'.

The Will & Skill Initiatives were exhibited in full force in the following ways:

- International Events
- FOGSI Conferences
- CMEs
- FORCE
- Workshops

International Events:

	Meeting title	Vice President incharge	Dates	Venue	Highlights
East Zone	Contraception	Dr. Krishnendu Gupta	May 6, 7, 8, 2011	Kolkata	512 delegates, five international faculty members, 80 national faculties attended. Large number of NGOs collaborated. A packed scientific program with public forums and awareness meets.
South Zone	Obstetric Emergencies	Dr. Milind Shah	July 22, 23 and 24, 2011	Bengaluru	1000 delegates attended this grassroots-level conference with an emphasis on practical obstetric care.
North Zone	Pregnancy Wastage	Dr. Mala Arora	October 28, 29, 30, 2011	New Delhi	300 delegates attended. The event was focused on an emerging specialty.
West Zone	Advanced Infertility Management	Dr. Nandita Palshetkar	November 25, 26, 27, 2011	Mumbai	500 delegates attended with a large number of international and national faculties. Range of subjects covering basic and advanced aspects of fertility care.

The ICOG Conference was held at Bengaluru – Thanks to Dr. Hema Divakar and Dr. B. Anklesaria.

FIGO-FOGSI Conference:

The FIGO - FOGSI conference was held under the aegis of the FIGO - Educational Committee and FOGSI. The theme of the conference was 'recent advances' in OBGYN on April 8, 9 and 10, 2011 in Mumbai. Dr. C. N. Purandare was the chief convener of the event and it was a tremendous success.

Yuva FOGSI Conference:

This great initiative to motivate and involve young members continues and has grown from strength to strength. The conferences were held zone-wise at South Zone – Chennai, North Zone – Raipur, West Zone – Ahmedabad and East Zone – Patna. The events were well-conducted and their reports appear in detail in the annual report.

National Conference on the Science of Research

This event was held at Cuttack. It was well-attended and highly appreciated.

Conference on 'why mothers die'?

This conference at Kalyani was held under the guidance of Dr. Dillip Dutta. It is rightly said that pregnant mothers in India should not die – man might. It was well-attended by delegates from various parts of the country.

FOGSI Postgraduate Training Course

(FORCE 2011):

- FOGSI - Sun Pharma Initiative
- Three days' training course for postgraduates in each state under the Medical Education Committee, FOGSI.
- Dr. Ashish Mukhopadhyay to be congratulated for his untiring efforts in covering almost all the states of the country.

Where we failed:

- Maternal mortality issue: Though there has been a slight dip in the maternal mortality rate, it still remains tremendously high. We need to take urgent steps in this regard with our 'Save the Mother' campaign. FOGSI needs to play a larger role in the GOI initiatives and we should think actively about FOGSI's maternity hospital. A simpler initiative could be a FOGSI mother adoption policy. Through this, each FOGSI member 'adopts' and looks after all the needs – medical, social, etc. of one mother. We also need to advocate maternity insurance.
- PCPNDT Act: A number of issues related to the PCPNDT Act remain unsolved including sensitization, personal grievances of members and the lack of uniformity in which the Act is being implemented. There has been some good news on this front with important decisions coming forth through the CSB meeting. One of these was the decision to allow gynaecologists to do sonography. My thanks to Dr. Sanjay Gupte, Dr. Girija Wagh and Dr. Rajeev Yeravdekar for their work in this matter.

The end of man is an action, not a thought, though it be the noblest.
This is very true for my words are my own and my actions are those of my Ministers.

Some thoughts and agenda to be fulfilled in the future are:

- GCP guidelines
- FOGSI courses for higher studies
- Accreditation of private hospitals
- FOGSI clinical trials
- FOGSI indemnity issues
- Social frontiers – societies helpline
- Social movement

FOGSI PROJECT REPORTS

1. EmOC FOGSI certification course report from April 2011 to March 2012 by Dr. Sadhana Desai

Dr. Sadhana Desai informed that the FOGSI-ICOG-GOI EmOC certification course was in its sixth year of implementation. Although its five-year contract was over in March 2011, an extension of one year was requested by the GOI to complete the training of MBBS doctors working in FRUs and to set up new EmOC training centres in those states that needed expansion of EmOC training. In 2011, FOGSI set up one nodal center in Chennai, five EmOC tertiary training centers in Hyderabad, Chandigarh, Amritsar, Haldwani and Patna and 33 district hospital centres for practical training of students. 20 master trainers and 66 district hospital trainers are trained in nodal centers and 212 MBBS doctors have taken EmOC training. Thus, a total of 1067 MBBS doctors have taken the training in the long course of 16 weeks and 104 doctors are trained in the short course since beginning of the program.

On July 14 and 15, 2011, under the Ministry of Health and Family welfare, a maternal health workshop-cum-review meeting was organized in New Delhi. The objectives of this workshop were to re-orient the state program managers on the key maternal health interventions under the RCH II/NRHM and to review the progress made by the states on maternal health and to charter the way forward. Various FOGSI EmOC state coordinators, representatives of Avni and Dr. Sadhana Desai attended the meeting.

The EmOC curriculum is six years old. Hence, an expert group meeting was held in Lucknow on September 24 and 25, 2011 for updating the EmOC course curriculum under the leadership of Dr. Vinita Das, Prof. and Head of Dept. at KG Medical College, Lucknow. The meeting was financed by FIGO.

There was also an expert group meeting for the evaluation of skill-based maternal health training under RCH II on January 3, 2012. The meeting was jointly organized by the department of international development and ministry of health and family welfare, Govt. of India. Various state EmOC consultants of FOGSI and National Technical Consultant of EmOC, Dr. Prakash Bhatt attended the meeting. The meeting ended with praises for work done by FOGSI and ICOG in carrying out EmOC program in majority of the states in India.

Dr. Prakash Bhatt attended the UNFPA - Asia Pacific Regional Office workshop on strengthening Emergency Obstetric Care (EmOC), selected Maternal Health and other RH issues, organized in partnership with the South Asia Federation of Obstetrics and Gynaecology (SAFOG) in collaboration with WHO, from April 27–29, 2012 at Colombo, Sri Lanka to represent India on behalf of FOGSI.

2. Report of FOGSI-SIDA project by Dr. Jaydeep Tank

Dr. Jaydeep Tank informed the members that in September, he had presented a detailed report of the SIDA project which has come to an end with the help of the various stakeholders over the years. There are sample registration surveys revealing that for the first time in the history of independent India, the contribution of unsafe abortion to maternal mortality is less than 8%. It is with the help and efforts of all the members and FOGSI that we have been able to do it. FOGSI is one of the active providers and certainly will not obstruct policies that promote safe abortion. Even the 8% of mortality is too much.

The SIDA project has actually taken up the consortium for provision of safe abortion. The essential goal was to access legal, safe and comprehensive abortion services, primarily at the primary health centers. The four objectives of the project were to develop an effective district level model base which could be CAC, develop a pilot model for expanding a provider base, implement MTP rules and regulations for states effectively and then expand. Fortunately the project has several major pick-ups. We could manage to pilot this model since the Government too has accepted this model as something that can be scaled up in future. He gave the idea of the scale of the project. In Rajasthan over 1,800 communities have been intermediately oriented about it, followed by meetings in 150 villages with 600 women groups. In Maharashtra in 2007, only two out of nine rural hospitals were providing MTP services and none of the 50 PHCs in the district were offering safe abortion services and there were improvements in all service parameters.

He said that something which he had not presented is that FOGSI has two major publications from these projects, both of them deal with a provision of abortion by mid-level providers. One study is on the comparison between mid-level providers and the efficacy by which they provide abortion. This has now been published in the international prospective of sexual and reproductive health and another study which talks of mid-level providers which has now been published in the Journal Contraception. Besides this there were several other achievements of this project, which were captured in the publication. He spoke of several recommendations being made. As the SIDA project has closed he would not be reporting about it anymore. He said he would be reporting on the FIGO initiative project which is for a period of three years and has now been extended for a period of two years. It is an initiative on behalf of Prof. Anibal Faundes, the coordinator of the project who also actively communicates among various stakeholders. He said that it has been a difficult time for people who are working in the field of abortion. There seems to be much enterprising between the PCPNDT Act and the MTP Act. At times it also seems that the authorities are using the PCPNDT Act to shut down abortion services. Hence, we need to be careful and vigilant. Let us not take the freedom we have in providing abortion services for granted. We must understand that it has come at a price and that we must be vigilant enough to pay the price. He ended by thanking all the office bearers and presidents under whom he has worked on this project, even though his tenure as a Chairman was over, he was allowed to work on this project and he hoped it was benefiting.

The initiative is taken up with multi-stakeholder participation with a consortium of FOGSI (member strength 25,000), IAP (Indian Academy of Pediatrics) (Member strength 18,000), NNF (National Neonatology Forum) (Member strength 3500), SOMI (Society of Midwives of India), Karuna Trust and IIM A.
- Also implemented is the FOGSI TAG initiative for reducing MMR and IMR by 50% through partnership with state and central governments. The objectives of the initiatives are for all mothers to get antenatal care (ANC), with supervised delivery, followed by appropriate postnatal care (PNC), effective newborn care, to implement Standard Treatment Guidelines (STGs) in district hospitals and FRUs. Also part of the objectives are capacity development and mentoring of medical officers, midwives and other paramedical personnel, accreditation and empanelment of our members' hospitals.
- The estimated outreach of the project is 31 lakh pregnant women in one year and 1.55 crore in five years. All 28 States and 7 Union Territories will be covered. In each of these, two districts are considered. Hence the total number of districts considered under SMNBI are 70.
- Government support: Union Health Minister and Mission Director NRHM have pledged their support to the SMNBI. Mr. Pradhan, Mission Director NRHM has issued instructions to State NRHM representatives to ensure their support and cooperation with our FOGSI fraternity in the implementation of SMNBI in their States and selected districts. FOGSI members from Karnataka (Belgaum) and Bihar have already reported receiving ample cooperation from the government sector.

Phase I: Under Phase I of SMNBI, eight member states have expressed willingness and pledged their support to take this initiative forward in two districts of their respective regions. Till date, all state FOGSI representatives have met. Interactions included government officials such as the CMO, DHO, NRHM representatives in addition to the Prognosis Management and Research Consultants from the agency who were employed to bring about these interactions.

Phase II: In this phase, the focus would be upon all active considerations on aspects that would promote the inclusion of SMNBI in State PIPs for 2012. In many states' PIPs and also in the National PIP, iron sucrose is now included. Magnesium sulphate has been accepted as a major proposition at all PIPs. Accreditation of hospitals has been accepted. Skill labs have been working in Patna and the government is looking after opening such labs in other states. This coordination has been initiated. A meeting was attended on 'Impact evaluation of the Chiranjeevi Scheme on mortality' and the 'Study of public-private partnership for EmOC in JSY in Maharashtra' at IIM Ahmedabad. We are now helping to formulate Chiranjeevi-like schemes for the Central Government.

A meeting was arranged with the scientists of Karolinska University. The title of the meeting was, 'Evidence for Policy and Implementation: Intensifying efforts to achieving health related MDGs with the aim to increase competencies to make evidence-informed policies and implement them to benefit disadvantaged groups'. Some of our members have already started identifying places. Special mention should be made of Dr. Shobhana Patted's work, BLOGS that chose to implement SMNBI at Gokak taluka and wonderful work has been done at Tukkanatti PHC. Patna society has also conducted various training programmes for ANM, LHV, nurses at different places. A meeting was held with Mr. Anthony Cameron, Director and Head of the NIPI Secretariat (Norway India Partnership Initiative), to exchange knowledge on addressing and improving maternal and child mortality with a focus on MP, Bihar, Orissa and Rajasthan.

Future plans: NIPI Secretariat will meet with the NRHM Mission Director and/or the Health Secretary to outline our proposal with district action plans relevant to areas being piloted in districts such as Angul, Sambalpur, Betul, Alwar, Dousa. Plans are also in place to work with the health ministry, as the Health Minister himself is ready to share ideas with us and a meeting to this effect should be arranged soon.

How FOGSI members can participate: Identify any district or public facility, offer ANC care, mentorship or training, report to us and we will help enhance the service provided, opt to get your hospital accredited and empanelled with the government.

Next steps of the initiative: As applicable and mutually decided, governmental infrastructure such as FRUs, PHCs, CHCs and/or rural hospitals will be made available under this initiative. Untied funds can be utilized for appropriate planned activities under the SMNBI.
