Dear Colleague,

Greetings of the day!

We are extremely happy and delighted to share that Patna is going to organize yet another prestigious conference which is FOGSI Critical Care Conference, hosted by Patna Obstetric and Gynaecological Society, on 5th and 6th July 2025 at Hotel Maurya, Patna. The theme of the conference is very pertinent to the current scenario : Early Detection and Timely Intervention Saves Mothers.

The topics selected for the conference will enlighten more in depth about the various critical conditions during pregnancy which can have a toll on the pregnant woman and the growing fetus, modern methods of early pickups of the dreadful conditions and latest modalities and interventions for their management for a favorable outcome.

We have planned a meticulous academic treat for you in the form of Oration, Keynote addresses, Guest Lectures, Panel discussions, Public Forum and young talent showcase in the form of Free papers, Debates and Posters.

A gala cultural evening awaits you as a stress buster to alleviate your tenisity. Bihar being historically rich offers you sightseeing places like Bodhgaya, Nalanda,Rajgir,Pawapuri,Baidyanath dham and many more architectural heritage spots.

We look forward for your gracious presence for the same and allow us to be a better host.

Embrace the new dawn, for it marks the start of a new life.

Waiting for you favorable response,

Organising Committee
