ज्ञानं परमं बलम् – Knowledge is the supreme power.

Dear FOGSIANS,

As I reflect on this month, I am filled with gratitude and pride at the collective spirit of FOGSI. August marks two extraordinary milestones in our academic journey—the completion of 100 Eagle Projects and the 200th episode of the Gyan Pravah podcast series. These initiatives stand as shining symbols of our unwavering commitment to spreading evidence-based knowledge to every corner of the country. I am deeply humbled by the tireless work of our Chairpersons and their teams, who have together accomplished Sampoorna CMEs nationwide, enriching practitioners and uplifting communities through education.

I am humbled to have released a very important position statement on teenage pregnancy marking the commitment to women's comprehensive healthcare. With great joy, I also extend a warm invitation to all of you for the Presidential Conference in Pune, from November 14th to 16th. It promises to be a confluence of learning, collaboration, and vision for the future.

FOGSI's journey this year is not about individual accomplishments, but about leadership born of teamwork. Together, we have shown that when passion meets purpose, there is no limit to what we can achieve.

I thank Dr Ashwini Kale for compiling the work for August month I'm sure you'll enjoy reading those milestones and journey. Happy Reading

Warm regards,

Dr. Sunita Tandulwadkar
President, FOGSI, 2025

Knowledge gives humility, from humility comes worthiness; from worthiness comes wealth, from wealth comes righteousness, and from righteousness comes happiness.”

Dear Friends,

It is with this guiding spirit that FOGSI Connect continues to bring to you each month a confluence of knowledge, innovation, and collaboration. This issue reflects not only our academic endeavors but also the vibrant social initiatives and conferences that shape the landscape of women's health in India. Every page embodies the dedication of our members who strive to blend science with compassion, research with outreach, and learning with service.

From cutting-edge clinical updates and evidence-based guidelines to reports from workshops and CME programs, this edition highlights the academic rigor that strengthens our fraternity. By sharing experiences and best practices, we aim to empower every reader to translate knowledge into better patient outcomes.

Together, let us continue to advance the frontiers of Obstetrics and Gynecology, ensuring that knowledge shared is knowledge transformed into better care and healthier lives.

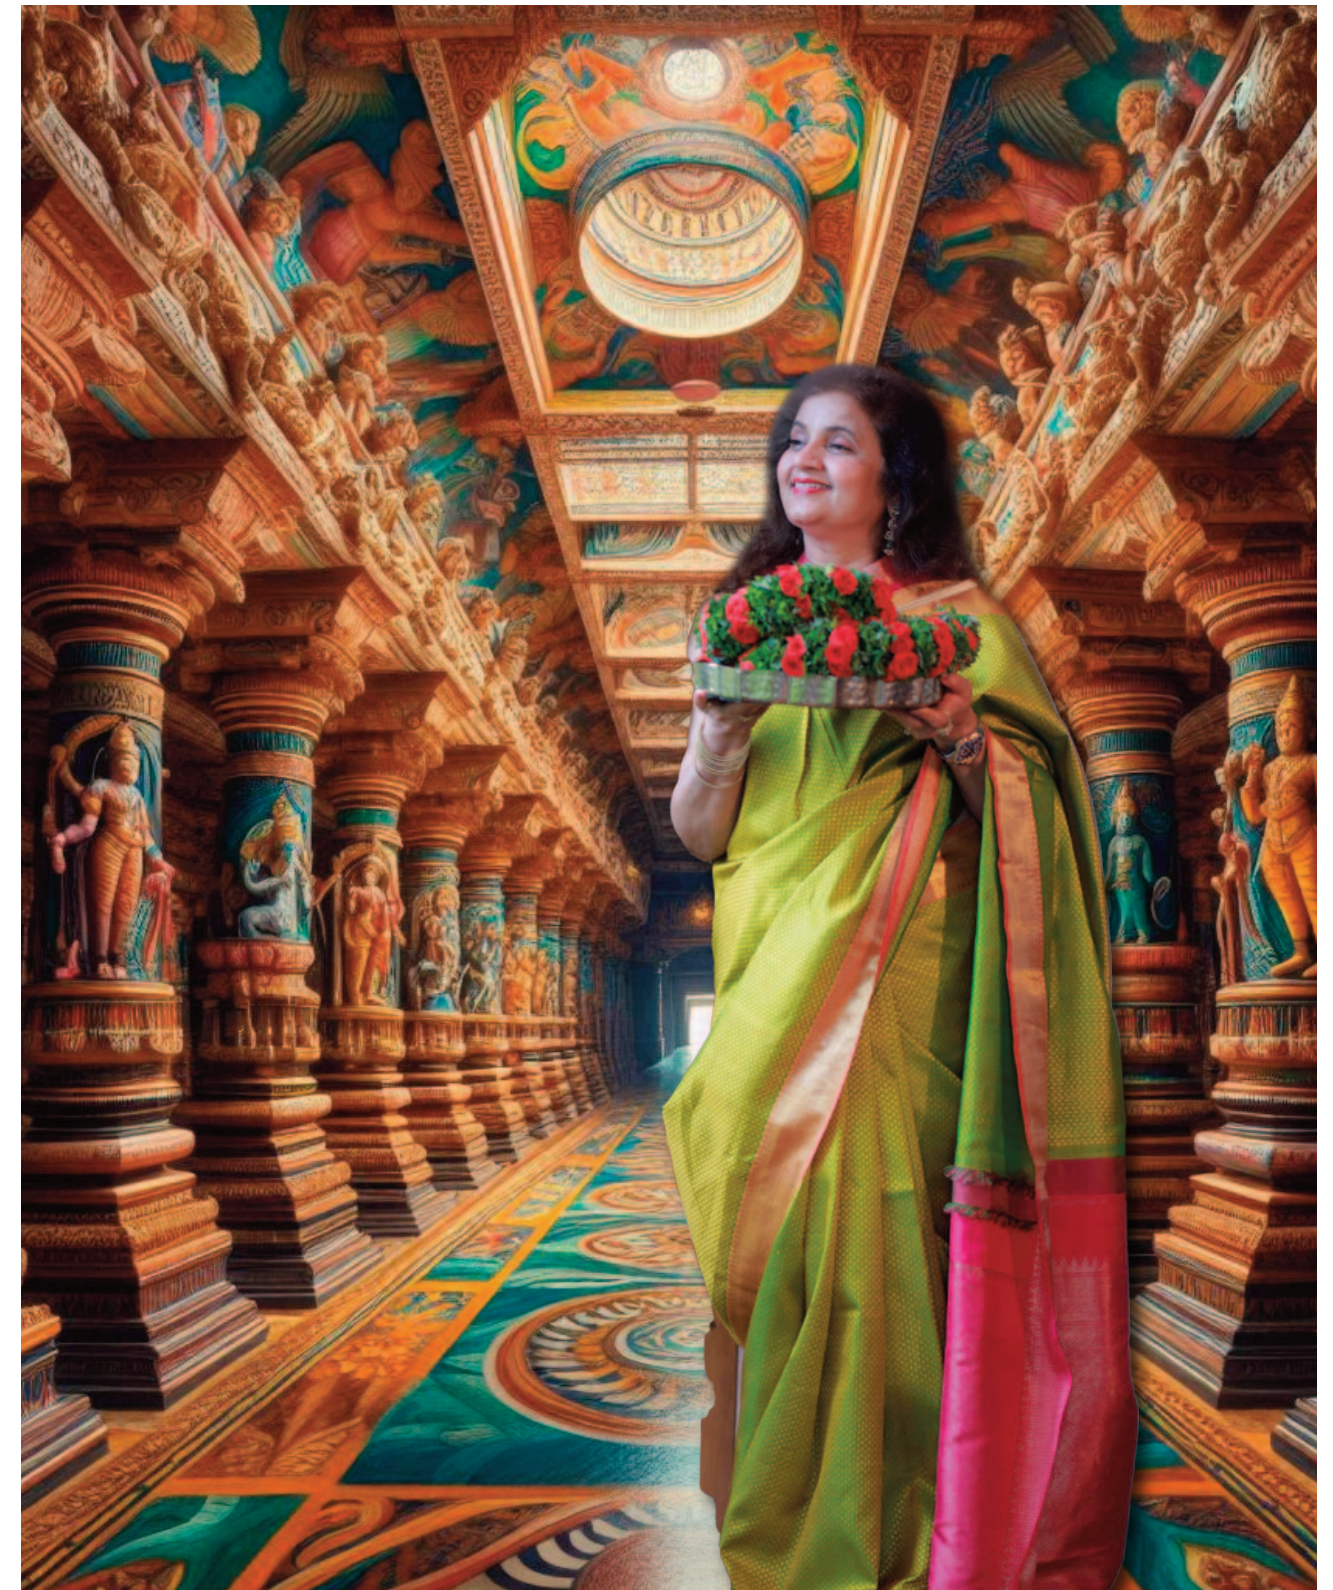

Happy reading
Long live FOGSI

Arogya Yog Yatra - Rameshwaram

Societies of Madurai, Trichy, Tuticorin, and Rajapalayam. Delegates from nearby towns like Pudukottai and Ramanathapuram also attended enthusiastically. The Know Your Number program was also conducted enthusiastically by FOGSI members. FOGSI chairpersons and Vice Presidents also participated.

Under the leadership of President, FOGSI Dr Sunita Tandulwadkar, the Arogya Yog Yatra travelled to Rameswaram, one of the holiest places for Hindus, on the 27th and 28th of July, 2025. The program started with an academic program, which was held in the town of Ramanathapuram which is the connecting town of Mainland India to the island of Rameswaram. The academic program was well attended by faculty and delegates from the OG

The spiritual journey to the tip of the Indian Peninsula was initiated on the second day after crossing the famous Pamban bridge. The holy island is a serene place which boasts spectacular natural beauty. The group visited the famous Ramanathaswamy Temple, known for its elaborate corridors and splendidly sculpted pillars and offered prayers for the well-being of fellow FOGSIANS and family.

SAMPOORNA APARAJITA CME JULY 2025

The Sampoorna Aparajita CME Series across various FOGSI Societies of India is a brainchild of our Dynamic President FOGSI, Dr Sunita Tandulwadkar. I coordinated 4 programs in July 2025, two in UP Societies, Jhansi and Prayagraj and two in MP Societies, Sagar and Rewa.

All the programs focused on Comprehensive Women's Health through clinical studies on Human Placental Extracts, Amino Acids as vital nutrients and the pathophysiology and management of PCOS.

JHANSI 06/07/25
Program attended by members of the enthusiastic Jhansi Obgyn Society under President Dr Alka Sethi and Secretary Dr Vidya Choudhary.

SAGAR 20/07/25
Sagar Obgyn Society is a small vibrant society of about 50 FOGSlans and witnessed a great turnout for the Sampoorna Aparajita program. The program was greatly applauded by President Dr Jyoti Chouhan and Secretary Dr Nidhi Jain.

PRAYAGRAJ 26/07/25
Prayagraj Obgyn Society is a large, decorated Category-A

Society and our program was a resounding success over there under the guidance and patronage of President Dr Kumkum Tandon and Secretary Dr Amrita Chaurasia.

REWA 27/07/25
Rewa Obgyn Society celebrated the auspicious Hariyali Teej along with our Academic program and there was interesting interaction with the senior teachers over there. Heartfelt thanks to President Dr Padma Shukla and Secretary Dr Rekha Singhal.

All in all, the Sampoorna Aparajita CME was a great success amongst gynaecologists of all age groups. The senior gynaecologists were excited about the potential revival of placental extracts and products in clinical practice. PCOS was discussed in the form of clinical case scenarios and Amino-Acids for their nutraceutical value. My deepest gratitude to Dr Sunita Tandulwadkar, President FOGSI for this opportunity to connect with FOGSlans across so many cities of India.

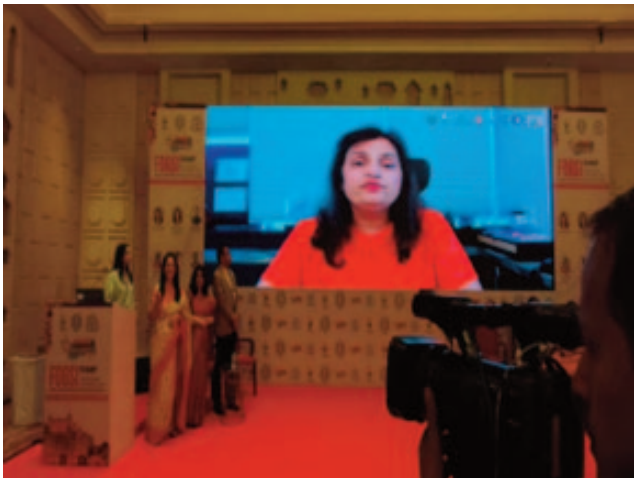

Thanks to our Academic partners Albert David Pharma and their team members.

SWASTHA NARI ABHIYAAN YATRA A Journey for Women's Health

A FOGSI Presidential Initiative by Dr Sunita Tandulwadkar – Breast and Cervical cancer awareness CMEs from Kashmir to Kanyakumari

Breast and cervical cancer remain the leading causes of cancer-related deaths among Indian women. Despite being largely preventable and treatable through early detection and timely intervention, awareness and accessibility to preventive measures remain a challenge. Addressing this critical issue, the Federation of Obstetric and Gynaecological Societies of India (FOGSI) proudly launched the Swastha Nari Abhiyaan Yatra—a nationwide initiative dedicated to educating, empowering, and ensuring better health outcomes for women across India.

Under the dynamic leadership of Dr. Sunita Tandulwadkar, President, FOGSI 2025, this movement spans the entire country—from Kashmir to Kanyakumari—mobilizing healthcare professionals and the public in a united fight against breast and cervical cancer.

The project is spearheaded by Dr. Charulata Bapaye, Chairperson – Breast & Puerperal Health Committee FOGSI with valuable support from Dr. Ashwini Kale, Joint Secretary, FOGSI.

Objectives of the Yatra:

Raise Awareness: Educate women on the importance of early detection, self-examination, and regular screenings for breast and cervical cancer.

Promote Preventive Healthcare: Advocate for HPV vaccination and lifestyle modifications to reduce cancer risks.

Encourage Breast Cancer Screening: Increase awareness of effective screening methods to facilitate early diagnosis.

The Yatra was launched in Kashmir on 4th April 2025 at the hands of Dr Tandulwadkar. From there – the Flame of Knowledge travelled to Noida, Delhi, Jaipur, Indore, Baroda, Pune, Bijapur, Kannur, Trichy.

The Yatra ended in the VP Conference in Kanyakumari.

The flow of the CMEs was as follows-

- 1) Welcome, Introduction and Inauguration –
- 2) Walk with Mashaal, placards, pink caps, FOGSI banner, society banner –
- 3) Talk – Screening for Breast Cancer –
- 4) Talk – Management of an Abnormal PAP smear –
- 5) Talk – As per Company requirement –
- 6) Panel Discussion- Cervical and breast health issues – A case based discussion – 50 min
- 7) Distribution of pamphlets on Self breast examination to all delegates
- 8) Vote of thanks
- 9) Lunch / dinner
- 10) The Flame of Knowledge was handed over to the member of the next society

The response from all the societies was very welcoming and the Initiative was greatly appreciated by one and all.

Conceptualised by Dr Sunita Tandulwadkar, President, FOGSI

Swastha Janma Abhiyan Sampoorna Launch and Position Statement on Teenage Pregnancy

Date: 2nd August 2025

On 2nd August 2025, a significant milestone was achieved through the collaboration of the Federation of Obstetric and Gynaecological Societies of India (FOGSI), the Children's Investment Fund Foundation (CIFF), and Jhpiego for the Swastha Janma Abhiyan Sampoorna initiative.

The master of ceremony for the program was Dr. Rohan Palshetkar, Chairperson of the FOGSI Young Talent Promotion Committee. The collaboration was formally commemorated in the esteemed presence of:

- Dr. Pawan Kumar, Additional Commissioner, Maternal Health and Immunisation, MoHFW, New Delhi
- Dr. Sunita Tandulwadkar, President, FOGSI
- Dr. Bhaskar Pal, President-Elect, FOGSI
- Dr. Hrishikesh Pai, Past President, FOGSI
- Dr. Suvarna Khadilkar, Secretary General, FOGSI
- Dr. Hemang Shah, CIFF
- Dr. Amit Shah, Jhpiego
- Dr. Bhargav Gaikwad, Jhpiego

The event featured a ceremonial exchange of agreements between the collaborating organisations, marking their commitment to jointly lead this program. In conjunction with this initiative, FOGSI and Jhpiego launched a Position Statement on Teenage Pregnancy. Teenage pregnancy remains a pressing public health concern in India, particularly among socio-economically disadvantaged and marginalised communities.

The position paper highlights the prevalence, health implications, and social consequences of teenage pregnancy. It also outlines key recommendations, including:

- Strengthening delivery and maternal health services
- Enhancing school health linkages
- Engaging adolescent boys in awareness and prevention initiatives
- Promoting research to inform and guide policy-level decision-making

This collaboration and the release of the position statement reaffirm FOGSI's commitment to advancing maternal and adolescent health in India through evidence-based interventions, policy advocacy, and multi-stakeholder engagement.

FOGSI South Zone VP Conference: Kanyakumari

Academic sessions ran at full capacity across all three halls until 5:00 PM. In parallel, Free Paper presentations and Poster sessions were conducted, providing a platform for budding researchers and clinicians to showcase their work.

The day concluded with a spectacular banquet in the evening, which turned into a vibrant celebration of talent. The entertainment segment included dazzling dances, soulful singing, and a fashion show – all performed by our own multi-talented doctors, rivalling professional performers.

The two-day academic program was power-packed, featuring meticulously curated sessions that were both practical and highly relevant to day-to-day clinical practice. The engaging topics provided an excellent opportunity for doctors to enhance their skills and broaden their knowledge base.

On the 26th, the event was inaugurated with a grand yet elegant ceremony, graced by none other than Her Highness, the Princess of Travancore, as the Chief Guest, alongside Dr. Sunita Tandulwadkar, President of FoGSI.

The highlight of the evening was the stunning Ravi Varma Painting-themed Fashion Show, presented by our elegant and graceful gynecologists – a truly unforgettable visual treat that paid homage to cultural heritage with style and grace.

Conclusion

PACE 2025 successfully delivered a comprehensive educational experience combining theoretical knowledge, practical skills, and clinical expertise. The two-day intensive program provided postgraduate students with essential competencies in obstetrics and gynaecology, featuring expert faculty, diverse teaching methodologies, and structured assessment protocols. The conference maintained high academic standards while ensuring practical relevance for clinical practice.

Recommendations for Future Programs

1. Maintain the diverse teaching methodology mix
2. Expand interactive and hands-on components
3. Consider extending the duration for more in-depth coverage
4. Enhance technology integration for modern medical education

PACE Projects, July-August, 2025

Under the leadership of President, FOGSI Dr Sunita Tandulwadkar, the Postgraduate Academic and Clinical Excellence – PACE program was conducted on the 26th & 27th of July 2025 at SMC AC Lecture Gallery, Vijayawada in collaboration with the Vijayawada OG Society. The Raipur Obstetrics and Gynaecology Society, in collaboration with AIIMS Raipur, successfully organized the PACE project on August 1st and 2nd at AIIMS Raipur. This initiative, spearheaded by FOGSI, aimed to provide comprehensive training to postgraduate students across the nation.

Report of PACE, Andhra Pradesh:

The program was conducted by the national convenors, Prof. Ashish Kumar Mukhopadhyay & Prof. Charmila Ayyavoo and National Chairperson of Medical Education Committee of FOGSI, Prof. Kiran Pandey. The state coordinators from Andhra Pradesh were Dr. P. Susila & Dr. N. Sailaja. The program was conducted on 2 days. The program started sharply at 8.30 am and continued till 6 pm in the evening on both days. 220 delegates participated in the program and they had joined from 20 colleges. 25 state faculty were involved. The program included lectures, case presentations, OSCE stations, ultrasound plate reading, examining of thesis and guidance on how to present long and short cases. There was a special lecture on AI Apps in empowering for publications by Mr. Bhavik Kumar. The discussions were interactive and was much appreciated by the faculty and students.

Report of PACE, Chattisgarh:

The program was conducted under the esteemed guidance of FOGSI President Dr. Sunita Tandulwadkar and featured renowned national faculty members Dr. Ashish Mukhopadhyay and Dr. Kiran Pandey. The state coordinator was Dr Monika Pathak.

Intensive Sessions: The two-day program, spanning from 9:00 a.m. to 6:30 p.m., covered a wide range of topics, including: Case presentations and discussions, Viva sessions, Instrument & procedure demonstrations. Special sessions on CTG, USG reading and laparoscopy, recent advances in Endometrial Cancer and many more were also conducted. OSCE and thesis discussions along with exam preparation and case presentation techniques were discussed. Faculty and Participants: The event saw participation from 30 local faculty members from medical colleges across Chhattisgarh and 3 national faculties. Over 100 postgraduate students benefited from the academic sessions.

Interactive Learning: The program featured engaging discussions, lectures, and hands-on sessions, with student enthusiastically participating and taking away valuable insights and take-home points.

Additional Highlights:

Quiz Competition: To inject an element of excitement and friendly competition, a quiz was conducted at the local level, where students were awarded prizes for correct answers. This engaging activity not only tested their knowledge but also encouraged active participation and teamwork. The quiz added a dynamic dimension to the program, fostering a spirit of camaraderie and intellectual curiosity among the participants.

Outcomes: The PACE project provided a platform for postgraduate students to enhance their knowledge and skills in obstetrics and gynaecology. The inputs from the faculty members were highly valued, and the program's comprehensive coverage of important topics was well-received by the participants. Feedback: The participants appreciated the intensive nature of the program, which covered a broad spectrum of topics relevant to their field. The expert guidance and interactive sessions were particularly beneficial, providing valuable insights and practical knowledge. Conclusion: The PACE project, organized by the Raipur Obstetrics and Gynaecology Society in association with AIIMS Raipur, was a resounding success. The event demonstrated the importance of collaborative efforts in promoting academic excellence and professional development in the field of obstetrics and gynaecology.

PACE Raipur

Organised by - Raipur Obstetrics Gynaecology Society (ROGS)

Date- 1st & 2nd August 2025

Venue- AIIMS Raipur Chhattisgarh

The Raipur Obstetrics and Gynaecology Society, in collaboration with AIIMS Raipur, successfully organized the PACE project on August 1st and 2nd at AIIMS Raipur. This initiative, spearheaded by FOGSI, aimed to provide comprehensive training to postgraduate students across the nation.

Key Highlights :

Expert Guidance : The program was conducted under the esteemed guidance of FOGSI President Dr. Sunita Tandulwadkar and featured renowned national faculty members Dr. Ashish Mukhopadhyay and Dr. Kiran Pandey (Chairperson Medical Education Committee, FOGSI)

Intensive Sessions : The two-day program, spanning from 9:00 a.m. to 6:30 p.m., covered a wide range of topics, including :

- Case presentations and discussions
- Viva sessions
- Instrument & procedure demonstrations
- Special sessions on CTG, USG reading and laparoscopy, Recent advances in Endometrial Cancer and many more.
- OSCE and thesis discussions
- Exam preparation and case presentation techniques

Faculty and Participants : The event saw participation from 30 local faculty members from medical colleges across Chhattisgarh and 3 national faculties. Over 100 postgraduate students benefited from the academic sessions.

Interactive Learning : The program featured engaging discussions, lectures, and hands-on sessions, with students enthusiastically participating and taking away valuable insights and take-home points.

Additional Highlights :

Quiz Competition : To inject an element of excitement and friendly competition, a quiz was conducted at the local level, where students were awarded prizes for correct answers. This engaging activity not only tested their knowledge but also encouraged active participation and teamwork. The quiz added a dynamic dimension to the program, fostering a spirit of camaraderie and intellectual curiosity among the participants.

Outcomes : The PACE project provided a platform for postgraduate students to enhance their knowledge and skills in obstetrics and gynaecology. The inputs from the faculty members were highly valued, and the program's comprehensive coverage of important topics was well-received by the participants.

Feedback : The participants appreciated the intensive nature of the program, which covered a broad spectrum of topics relevant to their field. The expert guidance and interactive sessions were particularly beneficial, providing valuable insights and practical knowledge.

Conclusion : The PACE project, organized by the Raipur Obstetrics and Gynaecology Society in association with AIIMS Raipur, was a resounding success. The event demonstrated the importance of collaborative efforts in promoting academic excellence and professional development in the field of obstetrics and gynaecology.

FOGSI QUIZ COMMITTEE REPORT

(January 2025 – August 2025)

Dr. Archana Kumari, Chairperson, FOGSI Quiz Committee I embarked on my journey of serving FOGSI as the Chairperson of the Quiz Committee on 9th January 2025, during the Annual AICOG Conference, Mumbai. It is both a privilege and a responsibility to oversee the academic quizzes nationwide. I express my heartfelt gratitude to the dynamic President FOGSI, Dr. Sunita Tandulwadkar, for her trust, unwavering support, and empowering leadership. I also extend my warm gratitude to incoming President Dr. Bhaskar Pal, for his encouragement, guidance, and support. My heartfelt thanks to the FOGSI Secretary General, Dr. Suvarna Khadilkar for supporting the annual subscription for KAHOOT platform for Quiz Committee and to FOGSI office bearers for their unconditional support. My work would not have progressed without the dynamic team of advisors and enthusiastic members who have passionately contributed to Quiz Committee activities.

Vision

The FOGSI Quiz Committee envisions creating a vibrant academic platform for postgraduate students, undergraduates, and FOGSI members:

- Fostering curiosity through interactive, evidence-based quizzes.
- Promoting peer learning and clinical reasoning in a competitive format.
- Integrating technology and outreach to make academic quizzing accessible and enjoyable.
- Strengthening inter-committee collaboration to diversify learning experiences.

Summary of Activities 2025 (Jan- August)
