AICOG 2019

INVITATION

Team Bengaluru welcomes you!

Dear Friends and Colleagues,

Namaskara! Welcome to the prestigious 62nd AICOG to be held at Gayatri Vihar, Palace Grounds, Bengaluru in January 2019.

Bangalore Society of Obstetrics and Gynaecology (BSOG) is privileged to host this conference under the aegis of FOGSI.

Karnataka, a land that inspires wonder at every turn, with its amazing hills, rivers, beaches, lovely waterfalls and forests teeming with wildlife, is worth a visit. You will find that the silicon city Bengaluru provides the ideal infrastructure, technology, salubrious weather and unique ambience conducive for a successful conference.

We have a direct, bold, powerful statement as our slogan: Women's Health is Nation's Wealth. The aim is to explore all aspects of research, technology and innovations in matters of women's health and present them as problem solving tools in the Indian context. Skill enhancement workshops and brain storming interactive scientific sessions will be conducted by the best of national and international faculty.

It is the third time we are hosting the conference in Bengaluru. We cherish the hope of delegate participation from across the country, across borders and oceans as well.

We promise entertainment, cultural showcasing and culinary delights for creating a fun filled learning experience.

We look forward to your valuable presence and participation at AICOG 2019, BENGALURU!
