Dear all....

What makes a little girl to feel she is mature enough to handle herself, feel womanish, takes her to motherhood, helps in bringing her dynasty, and slowly and steadily rowing the boat by fading her hair, wrinkling her skin bending her bones.....

The Ovaries a pair of almonds, known of course since Antiquity are more than simple reservoirs of eggs. It took the scientists years to agree the nature and mechanics of the tremendous tasks. The Enigmatic gland played dramatically different roles in different scenarios, including the role in the chemical regulation of Feminity.

This conference 'Amazing Ovary' is focused to explore the Pandora box of ovarian contribution in the life of a Female.

Carefully chosen topics to be dealt by the expertise in this scientific feast. Let us join hands to understand the encyclopedia of ovary.

Hope to see you all...

Do join with us on 8th and 9th of June 2024 at Coimbatore to get amazed about the ovaries...mastery of melodious,romantic orchestra to storms and cyclones in life.. in the Presidential conference of 2024, by COGSIANS.
