Get to know our Speakers

DR. JEANNE A. CONRY
FIGO LECTURE: Every Woman, Every Time... Every Where
 Dr. Jeanne A. Conry is the President-Elect of the International Federation of Gynecology and Obstetrics (FIGO). She is also the President and Chief Executive Officer (CEO) of the Environmental Health Leadership Foundation, an organization that serves as consultants to further education, advocacy and research on the impact of environmental toxics and health.
 Dr. Conry is a Past President of the American College of Obstetricians and Gynecologists (ACOG) (2013-2014) and is currently the Chair of the ACOG Women's Preventive Services Initiative, a collaborative to improve women's health across the United States. She is also an Associate Faculty of the Forum Institute, Pregnancy to Infancy Program.

DR. MICHEAL S. ROBSON
Achieving an Appropriate Cesarean Section Rate
 Dr. Michael S. Robson trained at the St. Thomas' Hospital in London, England, and subsequently became a consultant obstetrician and gynaecologist at the Wycombe General Hospital England (1995-2004). He then took his Master at the National Maternity Hospital, Dublin Ireland, where he eventually became a consultant obstetrician and gynaecologist in the institution up to the present time.
 His main interest is the management of labor and safe delivery of mother and baby. This includes the organizational aspects of the labor ward, as well as teaching, audit and research. His publications mostly relate to audit of labor and delivery, and classification of clinical outcome information related to labor and delivery. A specific research interest in labor is the etiology of dystocic labor.
