

FOGSI SURVEY 2020-21 BY

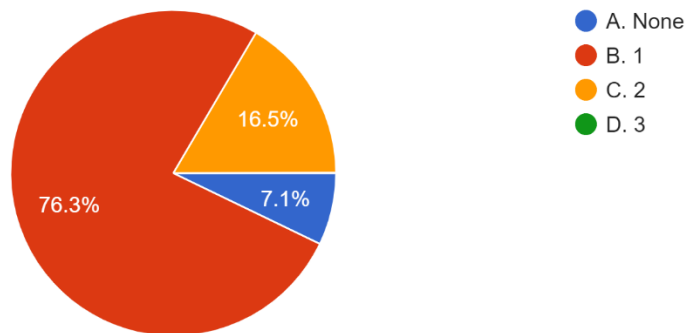

6 Survey on Vaccination in Women

President : Dr Alpesh Gandhi
Secretary General : Dr Jaydeep Tank
Survey Co-Ordinators : Dr Punit Bhojani, Dr Nilesh Balkawade, Dr Sebanti Goswami

Analysis of the responses:

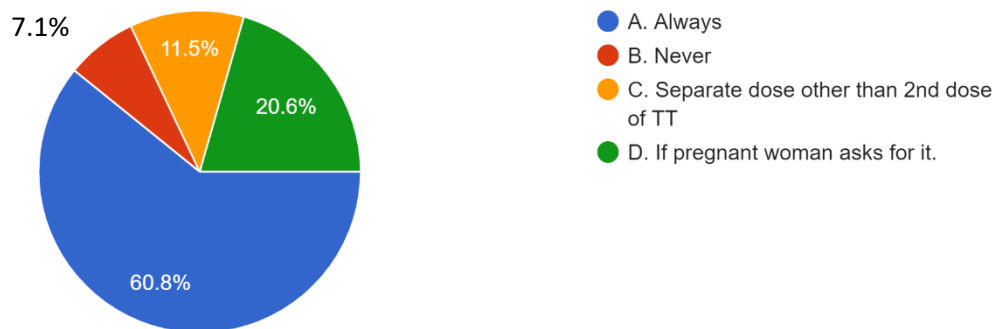

Q1. How many doses of Inj TT are you giving, if patient has completed regular TT vaccines in 1st pregnancy within 2 years?

1,623 responses

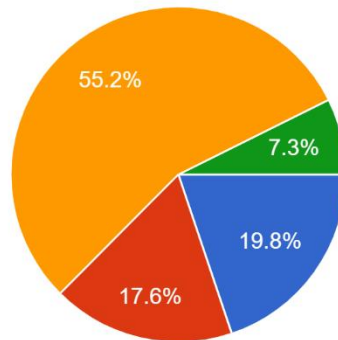

Q2. Do you prefer TdVac or TDap vaccine instead of second dose of TT?

1,623 responses

Q3. At what gestation are you advising Tdap vaccine?

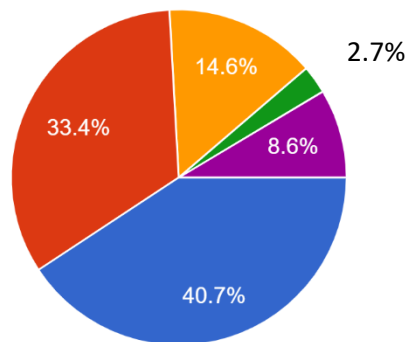

1,623 responses

- A. 16 to 18 weeks
- B. 20 to 24 weeks
- C. 28 to 32 weeks
- D. 34 to 36 weeks

Q4. Are you advising Influenza vaccine in pregnancy?

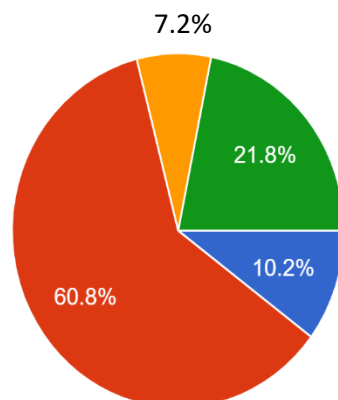

1,623 responses

- A. No
- B. Yes. Routinely at 24-26 weeks as India is endemic for influenza
- C. Only in Epidemic
- D. Anytime during pregnancy
- E. After 12 weeks of pregnancy

Q5. What's your opinion about Covid 19 vaccine in pregnancy?

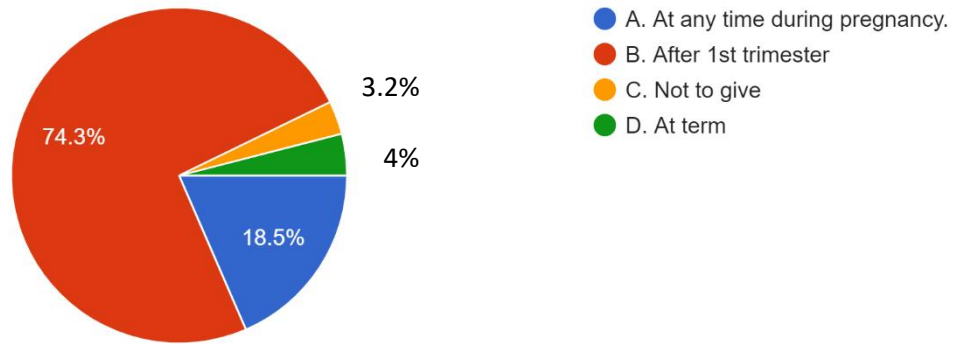

1,623 responses

- A. Should be offered to all high-risk pregnant women, like HCW
- B. Should be offered to all pregnant women as the risk of getting COVID and it's complications are more serious than theoretical risk of COVID vaccine.
- C. It's patient choice
- D. No COVID vaccination in pregnancy as there are no studies

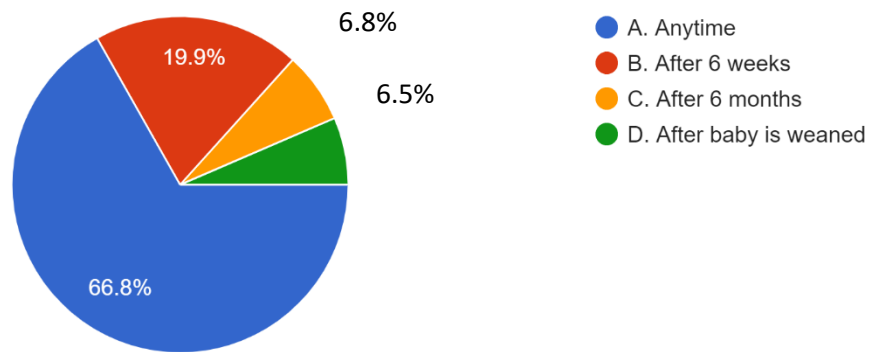

Q6. At what gestation you feel Covid vaccine should be given, once GOI approves its use?

1,623 responses

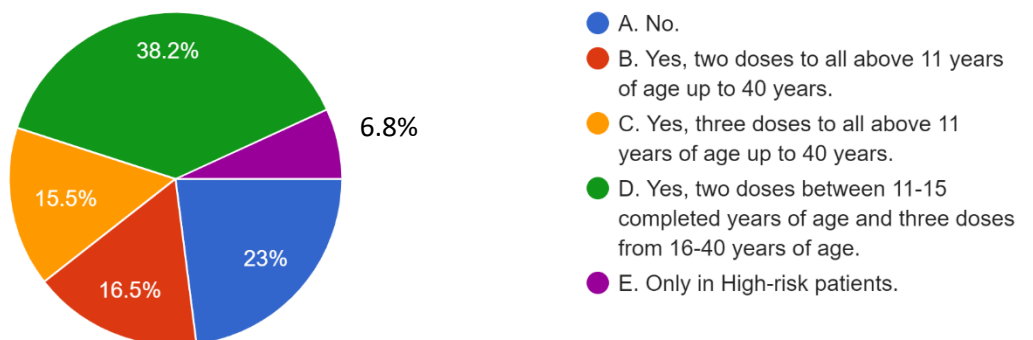

Q7. When should Covid 19 vaccine be given during lactation, once GOI approves its use?

1,623 responses

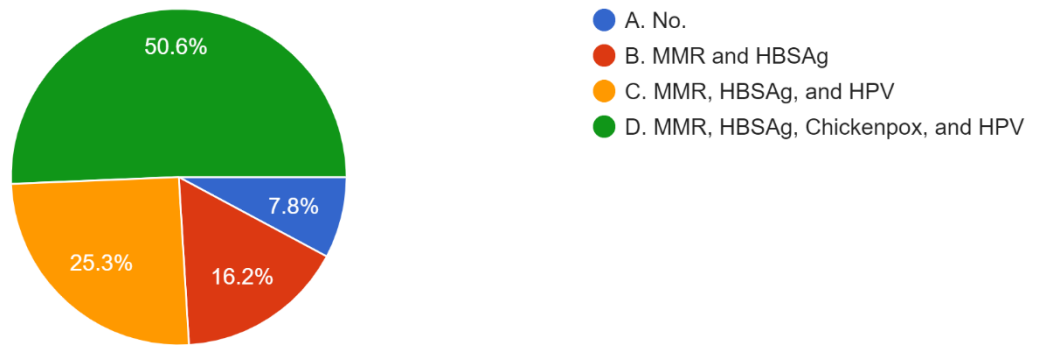

Q8. Do you routinely offer HPV vaccine to your patients? If yes, When and in which number of doses?

1,623 responses

Q9. Do you think vaccines should be advised and completed before planning a pregnancy? If yes, which are the vaccine would you advise a woman before her pregnancy?

1,623 responses

Q10. Would you like to advice HBSAg vaccine during pregnancy?

1,623 responses

